I. INTRODUCTION

The purpose of this privacy policy (the 'Policy') is to set out how Tetra Pharm Technologies treats certain information that is given to us when you use our website. Some of the data that our website collects is collected automatically and some is collected when you enter your contact information onto certain parts of the website.

The Policy apply regardless of how the website is accessed and will cover any technologies or devices by which we make the website available to you. It provides you with details about the types of personal data that we collect from you, how we use your personal data, and the rights you have to control our use of your personal data.

II. COOKIES

In order to ensure the website's smooth operation, optimisation and improvement, Tetra Pharm Technologies may place data files called cookies on your device.

A cookie is a small text file that a website saves on your computer or mobile device when you visit the site. It enables the website to remember your actions and preferences (such as login, language, font size and other display preferences) over a period of time, so you do not have to keep re-entering them whenever you come back to the site or browse from one page to another.

Cookies contain information that can be used to, for instance, create user statistics, and identify the browsers used by users. Many of these functions are used directly to improve our website and your user experience. Tetra Pharm Technologies can use cookies to obtain information about your computer including your IP address, browser type, geographical location, length of visit and number of page views. We do not use cookies for advertising purposes nor sell them to third parties.

If you wish to limit or decline the cookies placed on your computer when visiting our website, you can do so at any time by changing your browser settings. However, you should be aware that if you decline or reject cookies it will impact the functionality of the website which means that there are features on the website that you will not be able to see. Any browser allows that you delete cookies collectively or individually. How this is done depends on the used browser. Remember to delete the cookies in all browsers, if you use several different browsers.

III. PERSONAL DATA

On our website there is a template that permits you to enter certain personal data such as name and e-mail address. We store this information internally so that we can respond to your inquiry or send out information to you when there are developments in the company that you may want to know about. We do not sell, trade, or otherwise transfer any of your personal data to third parties or let any other users access them.

If you want to stop receiving information from us, please let us know by sending an e-mail to contact@tetrapharm.eu after which we will delete your information and ensure that you are not contacted again.

IV. CHANGES TO THIS POLICY

We reserve the right to update and amend this Policy. If we do, we correct the date and the version in the Document Data section.
